Dear Kris

RE: KAREN BOARDMAN - RAGE MANAGEMENT

I am sorry to say Karen still thinks she is entitled to some money and her solicitors have been writing to Modo direct and to myself making various claims.

From my reading of the papers, all Karen is entitled to is half of the management commission on income generated whilst she was managing you, and Yvonne tells me that she has in fact been paid all this money. Modo, as you know, is really a conduit for payment of the management commission from you to them and it may be that proceedings will be issued and served. I have indicated to Karen's lawyers that I am instructed to accept service of all proceedings, although I should warn you at this stage once proceedings have been served, you will incur legal costs in defending the matter and until such time as I know what proceedings have been brought, I am unable to tell you at the extent of those legal costs will be. In due course, this is something you, I and we should discuss.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Alexis
